Certification Price Changes:

Frequently Asked Questions for IIBA Members

1. Why is IIBA changing the certification prices?

IIBA® is dedicated to offering the best value for the products and services that we offer. We've maintained the same pricing since the launch of the certification program in 2006. We are updating the prices to bring more alignment and consistency across the program. Over the past 16 years, IIBA has grown and expanded the certification program, bringing new options such as convenient exam bundle packages and online proctored exam options to provide greater value to the global business analysis community.

2. What is the last day to purchase the exams at the current price?

The last day to purchase at current prices is February 28, 2022, 11:59 PM ET.

3. What is the first day to purchase the exams at the new price?

The new prices will be effective as of March 1, 2022,12:00 AM ET.

4. What happens if I purchased the exam and have not yet written the exam?

A price adjustment upon request will be honoured for un-sat exam purchases within one year of the purchase date. Please note, all application fee sales are non-refundable. Please contact info@iiba.org for more information.

5. Why are the certification prices not set up or offered by region?

To best serve the growing field of business analysis, IIBA uses fair and consistent pricing across the certification program.

6. What are the differences between the current and new pricing?

Below is a chart of the IIBA Member price changes that will take place effective March 1, 2022. Please note, the grey highlight indicates a price increase. The orange highlight indicates a price reduction.
