

What does your “Dream Team”
look like?

If your team is not a Dream Team, how could it become one?

The Qualities of a “Dream Team”

- The Team Members Care for One Another
- The Team Members Know What is Important
- The Team Members Communicate With One Another
- The Team Members Grow Together
- There is a Team Fit
- The Team Members Place Their Individual Rights Beneath the Best Interest of the Team
- Each Team Member Plays a Special Role
- An Effective Team Has a Good Bench
- The Team Members Know Exactly Where the Team Stands
- The Team Members Are Willing to Pay the Price

Does your team have a Dream Team
Coach?

Have you been a Dream
Team Coach?

The Qualities of a Dream Team Coach

- Chooses Players Well
- Constantly Communicates The Game Plan
- Takes The Time To Huddle
- Knows What His or Her Players Prefer
- Excels in Problem Solving
- Provides the Support Needed for Success
- Commands the Respect of the Players
- Does Not Treat Everyone the Same
- Continues to Win
- Understands the Levels of the Players

