

IIBA Honours 10-Year Corporate Partners with Award Ceremony

The IIBA Corporate Awards Program celebrates organizations around the world who have demonstrated a commitment to supporting training and career development of their teams and have had a significant impact on the business analysis community.

PICKERING, Ontario, Nov. 13, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA), the global membership association dedicated to supporting the growth and value of business analysis, was honoured to recognize the contributions of outstanding corporate leaders who have demonstrated exemplary leadership in business analysis in a virtual awards ceremony held November 11, 2020. This year marked the 5th annual celebration of the Corporate Awards Program.

IIBA values its many strong partnerships with organizations around the world committed to fostering relationships that build opportunities for business analysis professionals and helping shape the direction of the practice.

"2020 is especially significant as it marks the 10th anniversary of IIBA's Corporate Program. We wanted to share a virtual tribute to our corporate honourees in celebration of their outstanding commitment to the practice of business analysis over the past decade," said Delvin Fletcher, President and CEO of IIBA.

This year, IIBA recognized nine exceptional organizations for demonstrating an unparalleled commitment to thought leadership, adaptability, strategy, and mentoring capturing the quintessence of the IIBA Corporate Awards. View the award presentation here.
