1.0 The Recertification Program

1.1 Program Overview

Earning the Certification of Capability in Business Analysis (CCBA) is a significant achievement. CCBA is the globally recognized credential for business analysis professionals who are skilled in working effectively with stakeholders, modeling business processes, and identifying and evaluating opportunities for better business outcomes.

To maintain the certification, credential holders are required to demonstrate continued competence and stay current with changes in the field. Professional activities include learning activities to develop knowledge and skills and applying activities that give back to the profession.

The purpose of recertification is to:

- Enable the continuing professional development and competence of certification holders
- Show employers that certification holders remain current and competent
- Encourage the efforts of certified practitioners to give back to the profession
- Uphold the global recognition and value of the CCBA designation

“Maintaining your certification demonstrates your commitment to the profession by ensuring that you remain current with changes in the field through recertification” (Source: Institute for Credentialing Excellence, ICE-CCP Recertification Guide, 2022).

The following documents outline program requirements and provide guidance on how to record activities.

	The CCBA Recertification Handbook (this document)	The CCBA Recertification Process Guide
Purpose	Provides program overview, policies, requirements, and categories under which hours can be recorded.	Provides step-by-step guidance on how to enter activities into the BA Development Log and submit the recertification application.

IIBA is committed to providing full access to its credentialing products and services and complying with applicable laws and regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA).

IIBA’s credentialing policies and practices are guided by the International Standards Organization, ISO/IEC 17024, and the National Commission for Certifying Agencies.

1.2 Requirements at a Glance

To maintain the credential, continuing competence must be demonstrated every 3 years through 60 Continuing Development Units (CDUs).

Credential holders may achieve CDUs in any combination of categories. They are not required to record CDUs in all categories but must record CDUs in more than one category and adhere to category maximums (see section 3.0 CDU Qualifying Activities for the category maximums).

CDUs earned for activities will vary. In general, 1 CDU is earned for each hour in a planned and structured activity, with fractions of CDUs up to quarter (0.25) hour increments.

CDU activities must be aligned to the Knowledge Areas (KAs) or Domains outlined in the BABOK® Guide. The KA titles and numbers are described below and in the CCBA Recertification Process Guide:

1. Business Analysis Planning and Monitoring (KA1): Describes the tasks that business analysis professionals perform to organize and coordinate their efforts with those of stakeholders.
2. Elicitation and Collaboration (KA2): Describes business analysis tasks performed to prepare for and conduct elicitation activities and confirm the results obtained, as well as ongoing communication and collaboration with stakeholders.
3. Requirements Life Cycle Management (KA3): Describes business analysis tasks performed to manage and maintain requirements and design information from inception to retirement. This includes establishing meaningful relationships between related requirements and designs, and assessing, analyzing, and gaining consensus on proposed changes.
4. Strategy Analysis (KA4): Describes business analysis tasks performed to identify the business need, enable the enterprise to address that need, and align the resulting strategy for the change with higher- and lower-level strategies.
5. Requirements Analysis and Design Definition (KA5): Describes business analysis tasks performed to structure and organize requirements, specify and model requirements and designs, validate and verify information, identify solution options, and estimate the potential value of each solution option.
6. Solution Evaluation (KA6): Describes business analysis tasks performed to assess the performance and value of a solution in use by the enterprise, and to recommend the removal of barriers or constraints that prevent the full realization of value.

1.3 Recertification Dates

The recertification date begins when the certification examination is passed and ends on the 3-year anniversary of that date. CDU activities must be earned within the 3-year cycle (e.g., after the certification date and before the recertification date).

For example, if the CCBA exam is passed on June 30, 2025:

Certification is Valid for 3 Years	June 30, 2025 – June 30, 2028
Certification Must be Recertified By	June 30, 2028

1.4 Fee Payment and Submission

Recertification consists of an online process via the IIBA website. The Recertification Fee is non-refundable and must be paid by the recertification date.

Upon payment of the recertification fee and submission of the recertification application, an IIBA email confirms status of Certified (for the new maintenance term) or Recertification in Audit. See section 6.0 for the recertification audit process.

2.0 Policies

2.1 Code of Ethical Conduct and Professional Standards

Credential holders have an ongoing responsibility to the business analysis profession and must agree to abide by the Code of Ethical Conduct and Professional Standards, when applying for recertification.

2.2 IIBA Recertification Terms and Conditions

The IIBA Recertification Terms and Conditions outline the terms for submission and payment of the recertification application. It is each credential holder’s responsibility to be aware of their recertification date and to comply with requirements on time or risk losing their certification.

Recertification reminder emails will be sent by IIBA, unless an individual opts out from receiving IIBA emails. It is strongly recommended to keep the primary email address with IIBA up to date.

Note: Email communications from IIBA may be inadvertently blocked or forwarded to spam filters. Adding certification@iiba.org to a personal email address book may help ensure that credentialing information from IIBA is received.

2.3 Certified Status

Credential holders who recertify every 3 years continue to be certified, hold a Digital Badge and remain listed in the IIBA Certified Professional Directory, if they have consented to have their name listed. Opting into or out of the directory is part of the online certification and recertification process.

2.4 Failure to Recertify

Credential holders who do not recertify on time are officially no longer certified and cannot represent themselves as certified. Their name and digital badge are removed from the listing in the IIBA Certified Professional Directory.

Suspended Status

Credential holders who do not recertify on time are given a 1-year grace period to record their CDUs, pay the recertification fee and submit the application without penalty.

Credential holders who do not meet the requirements within the 1-year suspension period become Uncertified.

Uncertified Status

Uncertified candidates who wish to reinstate their certification can do so within 5 years after the loss of their credential by contacting certification@iiba.org.

After 5 years in Uncertified status, reinstatement is not allowed, and candidates will be required to re-apply for certification and re-take the exam.

IIBA reserves the right to revoke the certification at its discretion and to conduct random audits.

2.5 Appeals

Appeals can be requested by contacting certification@iiba.org.

IIBA will have up to 90 business days to review the appeal. During that time, further information may be requested by IIBA. IIBA will make a final, binding decision and notify the individual by email.

3.0 CDU Qualifying Activities

The CCBA Recertification Process Guide provides step-by-step instructions on entering hours into the BA Development Log.

Activities must align with business analysis activities and the knowledge areas within the BABOK Guide and activity dates must be before the recertification due date.

Example: a typical 15 credit academic course qualifies for 15 CDUs (although the actual number of class/contact hours = 45 hours).	3 hours of academic course = 1 CDU
	Courses/programs that automatically qualify include university or college Endorsed Education and Training Providers courses/programs if content is aligned with domains as discussed in the Agile Extension to the BABOK Guide.	All courses must be started after the credential has been awarded, with a passing grade received.

4.0 IIBA Endorsed Education and Training Providers (EEP)

IIBA Endorsed Education Providers

EEPs have been pre-approved by IIBA, and their courses automatically qualify if they align with the domains in the BABOK Guide.

View the listing of approved courses on IIBA’s Endorsed Education and Training Providers page. Some EEPs may also offer courses not approved by IIBA. Credential holders should focus on the listing of approved courses.

Non – IIBA Endorsed Education Providers

CDUs may also be earned by attending educational programs offered by non-IIBA Endorsed Education Providers whose course offerings directly relate to business analysis and the BABOK Guide.

To qualify, a course must be:

- Delivered by a facilitator or instructor who leads participant(s) through the content
- Designed with measurable learning objectives that describe desired performance outcomes such as changing behavior or improving skills applicable to business analysis
- Designed with opportunities for participants to interact with the material, ask questions, and have meaningful dialogue that supports learning
- Designed so that participants can practice tasks and be assessed accordingly

Non-EEP hours and CDUs will be validated by IIBA at the time of recertification.

Full course description and proof of attendance (certificate) will be required and must include:

- Course provider
- Course title
- Date of the course
- Hours of attendance
- Course description including learning objectives and assessment measurements

5.0 Reporting CDUs in the BA Development Log

Credential holders are responsible for recording their activities in the BA Development Log. Review the CCBA Recertification Process Guide for how to enter the hours online.

Hours entered cannot be changed after 7 days.

The following additional rules apply:

- CDU activities completed prior to obtaining the designation will not be accepted for recertification.
- Participation for the same course/activity cannot be claimed more than once and cannot be claimed in more than 1 category.
- It is the credential holder's responsibility to request a receipt of attendance (from their Chapter, etc.) for applicable events/meetings attended.

Transfer of CDUs

For credential holders who record more than 60 CDUs in the final year of their current 3-year cycle, up to 20 CDUs will be transferred to the next 3-year cycle.

6.0 Audits and Audit Documentation

Audits are conducted on a random basis, and it is strongly recommended that recertification supporting documents are saved for 3 years following the recertification cycle. If audited, proof of continuing education and activities will be required and will become the property of IIBA. Credential holders are encouraged to keep a copy of all materials submitted to IIBA.

Documents that are provided for the audit must clearly match the entries submitted for recertification. Failure to do so will delay the process.

Credential holders selected for an audit will be notified by email and will have 60 days from the date of the email to comply with the audit terms. Once IIBA receives and reviews all requested audit materials, the credential holder will receive the audit results by email.

Until the audit has been completed, certification status will show as Recertification in Audit.
